Five people are dead in the swimming pool of a high end resort hotel. Only one of them, a fame-hungry politician, is the suspected target. Three people are dead at a roof party on a high rise luxury building. The target is unidentifiable. The killer's calling card is a single black point on a blank. Lila Orileda is hired to find out who killed one of the random targets as the police run out of viable clues and suspects.

Earning the right of passage into Clover Street is the tip of the iceberg. To earn the privilege to meet the Wizard, Darin must go through a series of tests to meet the demand of the ionospheric war Clover Street is waging against earth. The most important and deadliest of such tests is voyaging the valley of Death Wire Roses

Politics and the Insatiability of the rich

Let's first put the blame where the blame resides. The democrats ran the country with two highly incompetent people. From that, DEI got its notoriety while with Trump's celebrated list of candidacy, it's showing itself degeneratively differently in the arms of entitlement and toxic expectation (oh the poisonous powers of racism!). DEI lives. Meanwhile, still on the failures of the democrats—they ran the country through incompetent uncaring back channels of questionable backdoor decisions and actions. They opened the borders down and endangered us all. This did not happen during the Obama era in which Harvard must have been proud and free. Those good old days! Doing your job matters. Doing it with integrity matters more. Or don't do it at all. They never got to care about things and people they should care about, the very reasons they were elected but provided ease for those who broke the law.

It was witnessed by those who cared. And for me, the FBI could have been running a domestic terrorist ring based on unvoiced testimony and the Biden administration could have neither cared nor know because the FBI would not confirm the Laptop was Hunter Biden's (oh the power of technology and institutional lies for political favors!). Competency and accountability was absent in democratic circles. If the Democratic party isn't learning the lessons necessary to be learned here, they are courting future losses accompanying present losses. You must reach across and care for all. You must care for those who elected you under the guidance of the constitution and legislation. Vengeance should be the least of your problems when you can make the lives of law abiding people better. If you don't care about ordinary people like me and others who have ample knowledge of how things should work and care, no one will care about you in your time of need. Do not fool yourselves with fake flagships. Your inadequacies showdown. The advice on the treatment of others, especially Trump, went unheard. Yet outsiders can't care about the life and liberty they know nothing of and have provided nothing to. Did they not betray you? You can never truly care about something until you've truly known or suffered for it. I should know. Freedom for instance. When you doom the freedom of those who know and care, you doom your freedom. That's why being present to mind unreasoned, unreasonable vengeance matters. As anything untimely done is ultimately unreasonable or as in the case of natural science, catastrophic. Prejudices matter little where people feel uncared for. You were running on loses!

Trump, the one being abused by those seeming unknown back channel decision makers no one knew or elected became a hero in this period when he decided to run for presidency again. You then lied about the condition of Biden's health, of the state of his decision making conscious ability while you should know that the ability to assimilate, understand and deduct insight from complex matters is inherent in decision making. You must have gone dumb in that period! If this was absent, any fool could lead any nation. Heavy repercussions could easily be rationalized by and for minor returns. And you, democrats couldn't have fought tooth and nail to ensure that a man of questionable decision making capability wasn't running the country. Could you? Lies, as it is now apparent from recent news about Biden's health, have great reverberating consequences. Public service, one would have thought, was more about the people than the person.

From Trump's recent activities, accepting an expensive airplane from questionable sources, which does not emerge from the MAGA narrative of making America great again, doing immigration favors for Musk who supported him based on unverifiable non-truth of "white genocide" while coming down hard on asylum seekers and immigration ( Truly any lie will do here as it was inevitable favor return. Why that lie? The democrats did worse. They did it for now worthless votes), compromising on things he said he would never compromise on and for, like huge unbelievable cuts to Medicaid and Medicare so the US (this country we are supposed to make great again) can gain 5 trillion dollars more debt to pay for tax cuts to the rich. This seems unthinkable doesn't it? But riches have no conscience here it seems, neither do promises. Open deals of highly questionable nature that leaves the middle class, the lower middle class, the lower class and the poor where exactly? it leaves me asking, 'who did the Christian God save from the savage hands of homicidal zealots?' Christians, can you help me ask God? What about the blood of the ordinary person that died while God saved Trump's life so he could shout "fight, fight!" What happened to that fight in the deepening throat throttling arms of overreaching tariffs commercial outlets are willing to pass onto consumers? Are the tariffs now going to pay for the 5 trillion dollar deficit?

As the insatiability of the rich grows infinite systemically, procedurally and structurally, what about the middle class, the lower middle class, the lower class and the poor?
