ZHOURCKH: THE COMEDIC ADVENTURES VOLUME I

To further incentivize the need for justice so the Bluesie-Jazz comedy festival is realized in reasonable time(necessitating a forensic audit), I am offering ZHOURCKH: THE COMEDIC ADVENTURES VOLUME I as a print only receipt book. Your support means the world to me. If you met me at the get together(because only those who care in the least with their support should criticize the other comedian, me) and you show me a verifiable $50 and over support of the free books for life cause, this print book is yours directly from me. I intend to show love to those who show me love. This too is important to me. This book will not be made available online in ebook or print. Your receipts mean the world, freedom and justice to me. Justice is important to me. I will not stop working hard towards achieving it. May you be blessed in more ways than I can offer for participating in my cause for justice. I am excited to write the book as much as I am about my own jokes as this differentiating x black woman. So, my work here is to write two sets of comedic acts, one of which I will personally perform. I live for love, truth, knowledge, wisdom and natural reality. Thanks for being a part of it:

Author's Note

If this work connects with you intellectually, spiritually, emotionally, or in any other way personal, it is free. If it doesn't, and you're rather of a different preference and won't ever come back to my works. It is free as well. Graces. I have never sought to run the world or rule it. Not my thing. I do seek to connect with humanity and make cross generational differences with practical, emotional and spiritual intelligence—matters connecting humanity and saving lives like mine against the odds life brings that I do know about intimately. Works are usually accounts of life, nature, science, politics and more in experiential reality. It is a privilege to be alive despite what I have been through. And I don't intend to take this deserved privilege lightly.

The work as well as others like it can be found on my website available free at www.edewlogics.com. To support free works like this and others available on my site, please support the free books for life cause. Thank you.

On Designations

Because materiality is cheap, everyone else has it. Everyone else craves it. Most who have and crave it possess a need for a sense of superiority, indecency, criminality, evil and other depravities. Envy ravages them. They loathe themselves even at their peak material states. They seek not goodness but everything beneficial. They are opportunistic beasts.

They seek into the richness of nature and bring forth bigotry. They are strangers to nature's truth where there is abundance of those very truths. They are not part of a present for they commune and conjure up the past. Their future is a phantom crown, forever at bay. Their conjecture of humanity never knows the present time. They are devoured by madness in their "bubble of intellect".

Spirituality is like innocence. It cannot be conjured up. It is the chamber of potency surrounded by impossibilities. Who must draw his last breath to behold reality must give up all possibilities in the realm of materiality. Life is like commerce. You cannot choose what you reap based on what you did not sow. You cannot choose to do nothing and reap good fate. There are always appearances of such.

There is no doubt there is great stupidity to be found in the excesses of knowledge. It has great conjectures with little delivery for compact facts. For truth cannot be a projection when it is compact. The excesses of knowledge knows excess repetition and in this it extends great incomplete hypotheses as theories, statements persistently to be true, to be made true, always to be about as true, is a materialist omen.

Truth is free spirited, at home from all appendages, unprompted, unsophisticated, irresistible for those who seek it, inevitable; without a doubt, simple. Materialism has a complex tax systemic worth which it extends with great prejudices and beneficial harm as it pleases. For the measures of the rich cannot be for the poor. There is always a leeway devoid of moral sentiment or ethical reality for the entitled—that great ill proposed only in kind.

Ignorance, after all, does not have a figment of practical or practicable success. There is , on the other hand, practical excesses. It is a show of incalculable measures of probabilities. Thus no one cares. And no one can care in the great ignorance of excesses where the numbing of things through mind numbing means is all there is—that great materialism, always the designation of all things.
